An excerpt from "Curtain Call" following a Connections' Senior High Drama performance of Three Musketeers
 "... And though good-byes and endings are bitter-sweet,
 and life is predictably uncertain,
 we, too, must dig deep for courage as we draw swords for the sake of love and honor --trusting that all our memories, both the good and the bad, will one day become 'sweet remembrances...'"

Leaving a Legacy and the Fragrance of Christ

"Her passions were drawing, poetry and freelance writing. Her inspiration came from her Christian faith."

"She was a comfort to those in pain, a mentor to creative minds and a compassionate listener to those who faltered. She was the first to forgive and the last to receive."

'Sacrificial love for the sake of others' defined her life. She was truly a good and faithful servant."

"We remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labor prompted by love and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ."

1 Thessalonians 1:3

"What I remember most about her class was the 5, 15 and 60 second 'tornado scribble drawings'. It was very fun and funny to see what we drew. Sometimes you would only have time to draw an arm or half a body. Mrs. Youngblood will be missed because she was always so encouraging. She would say to me, 'That's really good; keep at it!'"

Kyle Ness 5th grade

"Mrs. Youngblood's teaching affected me most by her passion. She could speak about the simplest things like colors, and you could see the sparkle and excitement in her eyes. She was enthusiastic about every piece of work. She had a brilliant mind and warming heart that always looked on the bright side. She put her soul into everything she did, whether it was teaching, listening, or loving. I will always remember of the things she taught me, whether it was with art or how to live." Natalie Brawner 7th Grade

"What I remember most about Mrs. Youngblood's teaching style was that she wanted the kids to get past any fears or hesitations they had about their artistic ability and just have fun expressing themselves. She encouraged them to be creative and just jump in and draw/create and let their own personal style show through."

Mrs. Angela Figgins

"What we will remember most about Mrs. Youngblood is not just the art she taught, but her encouragement and kindness. She was the most dedicated and hard working of teachers! Even when not feeling well, she even took special time to give individual help before and after class. We will forever remember Mrs. Youngblood's love for God, art and kids!"

Mrs. Melissa Twa

"... You blessed me, Cynthia, through your sharing,
 Now it's my turn,
 Now it's our turn.
 I love you. I'll miss you.
 Thank you for showing me Jesus in such a beautiful and unique way."

Mrs. Kelly Czech

LATIN

Sculpta (Engraved)

Right: Assisting the students with an in-class exercise, Mrs. Sutton helps Megan Farris and Amy Johnson (second-year Latin students), translate the story of the "Perils of Pauline" from Latin to English. According to Mrs. Sutton, students who take Latin classes are generally more likely to score higher on the vocabulary part of their college S.A.T. tests and often find medical and scientific terms easier to decipher. Studying Latin can make learning other languages easier, including English grammar. Some of her students have continued their Latin classes for three or four years at Connections.

To The Virgins, To Make Much Of Time
by Robert Herrick

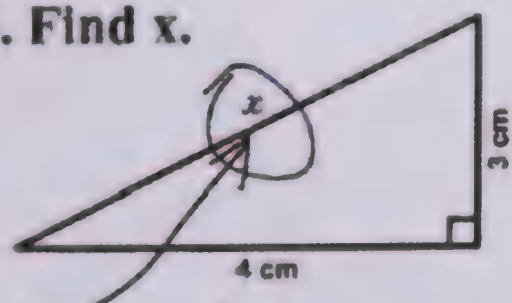

Gather ye rosebuds while ye may,
Old time is still a-flying:
And this same flower that smiles to-day
To-morrow will be dying.
The glorious lamp of Heaven, the Sun,
The higher he's a getting,
The sooner will his race be run,
And nearer he's to setting.
That age is best which is the first,
When youth and blood are warmer;
But being spent, the worse, and worst
Times still succeed the former.
Then be not coy, but use your time,
And while ye may, go marry;
For having lost but once your prime,
You may for ever tarry.

I will rejoice greatly in the LORD,
My soul shall be joyful in my God;
For He has clothed me with the garments of salvation,
He has covered me with the robe of righteousness.

"There is really only one thing that's important to ask yourself when you're about to put something in your mouth: Does it taste like bacon? If yes, then go ahead and put it in your mouth."

- Kat Kinsman

"Dancing with the feet is one thing,

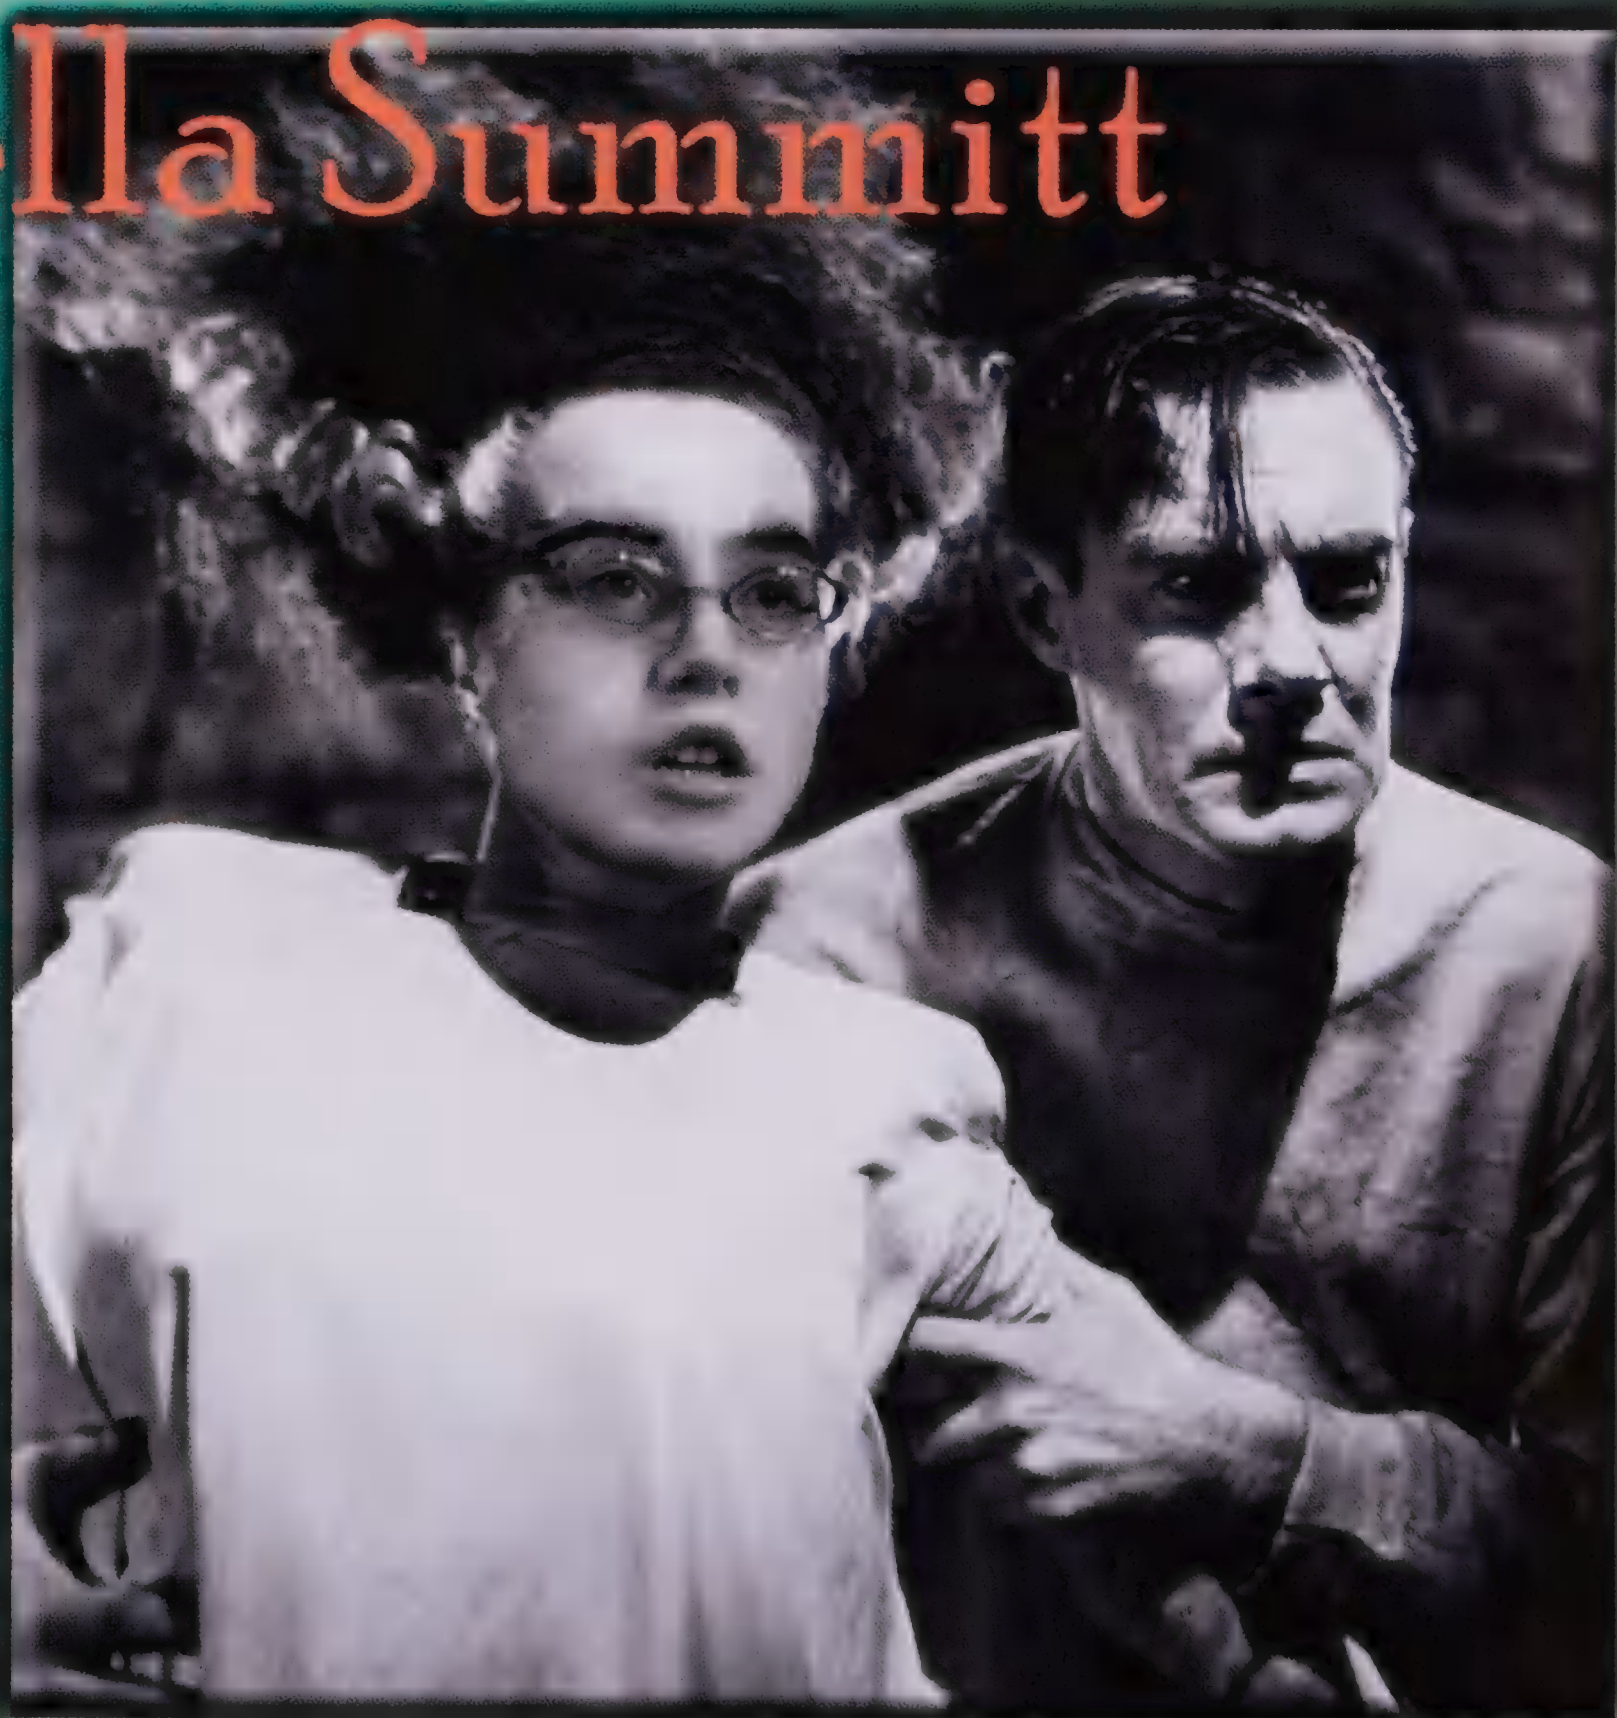

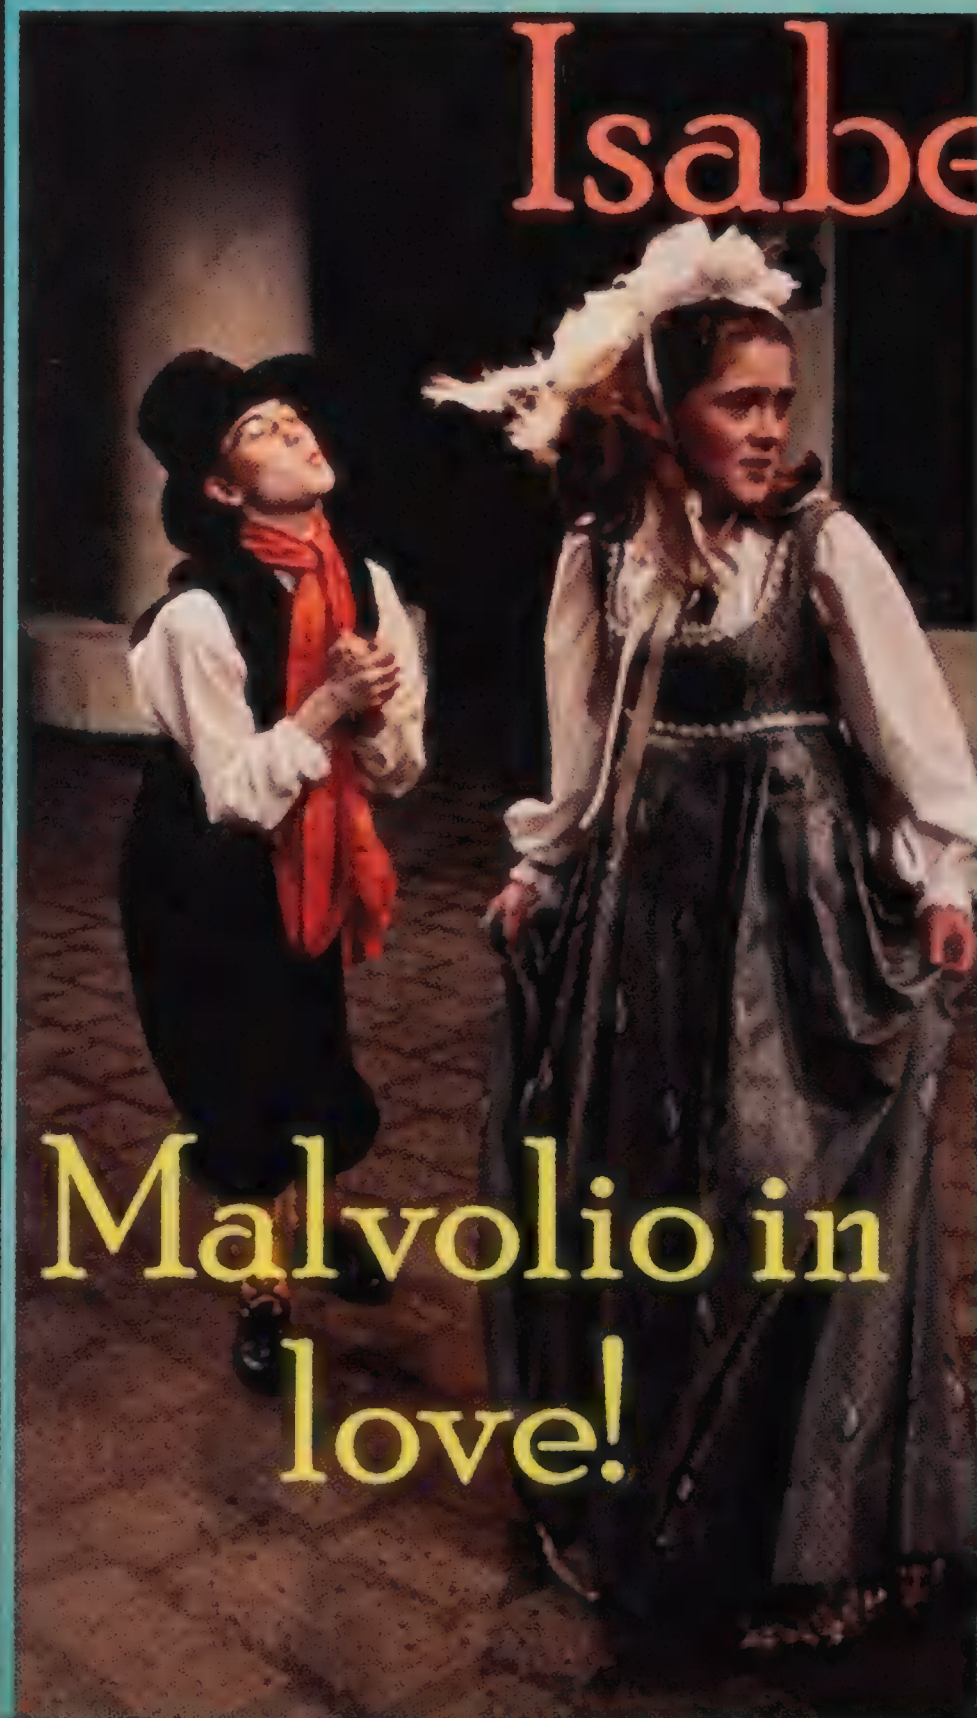

but dancing with the heart is another."

One thing I ask of the LORD, this is what I seek:
that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze
upon the beauty of the LORD and to seek him in his temple. For in the day of trouble he will keep me
safe in his dwelling; he will hide me in the shelter
of his tabernacle and set
me high upon a rock.

Letter from the Editor (Chelsea Crane)

It has been so great working on the 2010 - 2011 yearbook, "Impact" with the theme of "Impacting the World for Christ." The entire staff has been so much fun to work alongside. They've been really resourceful and creative in putting together such a wonderful book. I'd like to especially thank our amazing advisor, Mrs. Hutchinson, who gave us more slack than we deserved. She's been so encouraging all year, and without her, the book wouldn't have the same quality. We hope you treasure this book and all the memories we've strived to capture.

Letter from the Advisor (Mrs. Debbie Hutchinson)

As this year's staff selected the theme of "Impact," I only glimpsed its far-reaching implications, reflected in the dual meaning of both the impact of God's love in our lives, and secondly, our resulting impact outward on the world. It was my privilege and pleasure to see the students incorporate this theme into their creative designs and insightful writing, as they attempted to capture this past year at Connections. Many thanks to my wonderful facilitator, Barb Crane, and my talented editor, Chelsea Crane, for their four years of dedication to the success of our yearbook. May every reader be blessed!
